New On Offer at Polynesian Spa

Priori Coffeeberry Facial

If you thought coffee was for drinking, think again! The CoffeeBerry is the fruit of the coffeebush (in which the bean is encased). It is packed full of antioxidants that are able to target the 'free radicals' that cause skin damage and aging. Priori, a US based skincare organisation, has developed a facial product using its trademarked CoffeeBerry, and applied huge research to the effect of the berries, claiming they deliver advanced science and the best anti-aging results based on these patented technologies. Polynesian Spa, which sells Priori CoffeeBerry products through its shop as well, agrees and says – "come and experience this innovative facial for yourself. It's ideal for those from 25 years old onwards and it will leave your skin feel firm, radiant and relaxed." Click here to book.
