Polynesian Spa hits World Top Ten in Conde Nast – again!

New Zealand's leading international spa, Polynesian Spa in Rotorua has once again been voted amongst the top ten thermal, medical and natural spas in the world by Conde Nast Travel European readers in their 2011 Readers Choice Spa Awards. In 2004 – 2007 & 2009 Polynesian Spa also featured in the top ten. Every time Polynesian Spa has appeared, it has been the only spa outside Europe to receive this accolade. This time, readers placed it 7th.

“It is a huge honour for us with it being a readers choice award”, says Martin Lobb, Managing Director. “We are thrilled to be in the top 10 once again. We pride ourselves at delivering world class quality products and always look for new unique experiences for our customers. It is fantastic to get this kind of international recognition”.
